

Midsized Internet Education Company

600 employees

You're a mid-sized organization. You have a team of 250-1,000 employees. Your greatest challenges center around bringing on the best talent and retaining them, because every single team member counts. You also don't have time to spend managing their benefits - but are committed to giving them with whatever the top businesses are providing.

Student loan repayment programs are one of the best benefits out there today - dollar for dollar.

Here's what a company of your size was challenged with and how implementing Tuition.io helped.

Primary Objective

- ✓ Increase employee engagement

Program Design

- ✓ $1,000 annual contribution at the end of the year to all employees with debt

Results

Testimonials

"We have seen a 20% increase in employee retention over the past 6 months since implementing our student loan repayment program. Tuition.io was incredibly helpful in mapping out our plan."
